

GRACE SEONGEUN KIM

Patent & Trademark Associate
Attorney at Law, DC

Grace Kim is an associate attorney at Bridgeway IP Law Group. Her studies in technical fields include biology and biochemistry. Grace handles various IP matters, such as patent prosecution, trademark prosecution, and validity/infringement opinions.

Having graduated from South Pasadena High School in California, she attended California Polytechnic University, Pomona (Biochemistry major) before transferring to Handong Global University in South Korea. Grace did legal internships at Novick, Kim, and Lee and Bridgeway IP Law Group whenever she was available during winter and summer breaks at law school.

Grace received her J.D. equivalent first-professional law degree from Handong International Law School and LL.M. from Regent University School of Law. During her undergraduate years at Handong Global University, she majored in Biology and minored in Business.

E-mail

sekim@bridgewayip.com

Tel

1-703-349-6700

Admissions

- District of Columbia (DC)

Education

- LL.M., Regent University School of Law
- J.D., Handong International Law School
- B.S. in Life Science, Handong Global University (transferred from California Polytechnic University)

Language

English, Korean

Protecting your intellectual property, securing your future